

Joseph Lewis is a Food Regulatory Consultant, representing Industry on several committees, including the Central Committee for Food Standards (Ministry of Health, Government of India; 1998-2006). Thereafter he was a member on several Scientific Panels and Working Groups; Food Additives, Labelling, Claims and Advertisements, Nutraceuticals and Health Supplements (2009-2015). He continued thereafter as a Consultant with the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India, FSSAI (2015-2017).

He obtained his PhD (Tech) at the University Department of Chemical Technology(UDCT), Mumbai and thereafter worked on a postdoctoral program at the University of Reading, UK while on a Nuffield Fellowship. He has over 25 years of experience in research and development with the Food Industry (Britannia Ltd, Marico Ltd).

He consults with various Associations and Industry.