

Dr. Shatadru Sengupta

- Dr. Shatadru Sengupta is presently Vice President – Legal at Hardcastle Restaurants Private Limited, (McDonald's India West & South), subsidiary of Westlife Development Ltd, a BSE-listed company, of which he is the Company Secretary.
- He has total post-qualification work experience spanning 29 years. He serves as General Counsel for the above companies and advises other companies in the group, in all areas of law.
- He is a Mechanical Engineering graduate from VJTI, Mumbai, a Fellow Member of the Institute of Company Secretaries of India (FCS), a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) and Masters in Law (LL.M.) from Mumbai University, a Doctorate in Law (Ph.D.(Law)) from Mumbai University and an MBA (Operations) from ICFAI University. He also holds a Six Sigma Green Belt issued by KPMG.
- His areas of expertise include property law, commercial laws, contract law, company law and allied corporate laws such as the SEBI Regulations, intellectual property laws, criminal law, cyber laws, labour laws, indirect and direct tax laws, consumer law, foreign exchange and foreign investment regulations, food law, law relating to weights and measures, environment law, competition law, import-related law, municipal laws and various kinds of litigation, covering civil, constitutional, criminal and consumer matters and other adversarial matters.